

PRESS RELEASE

“The Protocol School of Washington conducts first ever International Protocol Manager Training for Kurdistan Regional Government”

The Protocol Department of the Kurdistan Regional Government recently invited The Protocol School of Washington to conduct the first ever International Protocol Manager Training in Kurdistan. The program was conducted at the Saad Conference Center in Erbil, and covered several modules on international protocol functions, such as precedence, seating strategies, flags, and dining etiquette.

“It was an honor to be in Kurdistan to share our educational expertise, and to learn about the unique experiences of the Protocol Department of the Kurdistan Regional Government. This training represents the Protocol Department’s commitment to professionalism and their vision for the future of the Kurdistan Region,” said Ms. Pamela Eyring, President of Protocol School of Washington.

“We are pleased to have welcomed The Protocol School of Washington to the Kurdistan Region. The training will help us to continue to ensure the Kurdistan Regional Government maintains high standards in protocol and professionalism,” said Mr. Sherzad Sultan, Chief of Protocol, Kurdistan Regional Government.

“We are happy to establish a relationship with the Kurdistan Regional Government. We look forward to future cooperation in different areas within the field of International Protocol and Business Etiquette Training,” said Mr. Saeed Al-Salkhadi, Managing Director of the Middle East Regional Office of The Protocol School of Washington.

The Protocol School of Washington is the leader in protocol and etiquette training in the USA since 1988 and has established an office in Dubai under the direction of Mr. Saeed Al Salkhadi. The school is recognized worldwide as the best in the industry and is accredited through The Accrediting Council for Continuing Education & Training (ACCET), which is officially recognized by the U.S. Department of Education.
