

THE PROTOCOL SCHOOL OF WASHINGTON

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Saeed AlSalkhadi

PROTOCOL FOUNDATIONS & BUSINESS ETIQUETTE TRAINING COMPLETED AT ZAYED UNIVERSITY WOMEN CAMPUS IN DUBAI, UAE

DUBAI, DECEMBER 24th 2012, The Protocol School of Washington awarded 13 Emirati female students who have successfully completed Protocol Foundations & Business Etiquette Training Program on Dec 19th 2012 at Zayed University Women Campus in Dubai. The three day program covered the basic principles of Protocol, its applications, and Business Etiquette. The certificates were presented by Ms. Pamela Eyring, President, The Protocol School of Washington.

The program was organized by the Future Club at Zayed University Women Campus in Dubai. Ms. Shamma Rashed Alshamsi, the Future Club President said: "I researched online to find the best school to conduct our training and I was amazed by the great reviews I found on The Protocol School of Washington. I then wrote to them and explained our club intention to have a training program conducted locally on our Dubai Campus. We are indeed honored that The Protocol School of Washington gave us the opportunity to obtain this training before we graduate in Spring 2013."

The Protocol School of Washington is the leader in protocol and etiquette training in the USA since 1988 and has established an office in Dubai under the direction of Mr. Saeed Al Salkhadi. The school is recognized worldwide as the best in the industry and is accredited through The Accrediting Council for Continuing Education & Training (ACCET), which is officially recognized by the U.S. Department of Education.

