The Protocol School of Washington® hires Myra Andrews as new Alumni and External Affairs Specialist

(Washington, DC)— The Protocol School of Washington (PSOW) —the only accredited business etiquette and international protocol school in the country— announces that Myra Andrews has been hired as the school’s new Alumni and External Affairs Specialist. In her new position, Myra will work closely with alumni and external partners to build strategic partnerships and resource opportunities for new students as well as develop and manage educational programs, certification and licensure. A graduate of the University of South Carolina, Myra also attended th University of Warwick, Coventry, UK and Koç University, Istanbul, TU, receiving her Bachelor of Science in International Business and Management.

“With Myra’s international education background as well as her amazing communication skills, she will be a perfect addition to our team,” said Pamela Eyring, president and owner of The Protocol School of Washington. “We are pleased that Myra will be the lead contact to represent our school to our international alumni network, helping us maintain and foster ongoing education and business opportunities.”
